RE: DR. CAROLINE KIPTOO –PROFESSIONAL MEMBER NUMBER PM000304

We wish to confirm that DR. CAROLINE KIPTOO of Membership Number PM000304 is a Professional Member of the Association of Computing Practitioners Kenya (ACPK). The Association is registered under the laws of Kenya, Societies Act, CAP 108 of the Revised Edition 2012 [1998] to ensure the digital journey is safe and positive for everyone in the dynamic technological space, by championing for standards of competence and conduct across the Computing industry and tackling the ethical challenges that practitioners face along in practice. It was formed by IT professionals who identified the need for professional standards, vital to the integrity and future wellbeing of the Computing industry, a view supported by those seeking professionalism within the sector.

We confirm that the member has been fully registered and is in good standing as at the time of writing this letter in active membership. ACPK leads the profession in ensuring trust in, and value from technology innovations, research, and education in application practice by thousands of computing practitioners and resource IT Associate Professionals. It has devolved its functions into 47 Chapters country-wide in Kenya. The Association operates on the following thematic areas:

- 1) Supporting career growth among Computing professionals
- 2) Sharing heterogenic expertise in the Computing Industry
- 3) Influencing Professional practice among Practitioners
- 4) Improving education in Kenya
- 5) Support derivation and enforcement of standards in Computing industry
- 6) Innovation Research & framework on e-Waste management

Members of the Association who are in good standing are required to adhere to the code of Ethics for ICT professionals, pay subscriptions on time and attain the required hours of continuous professional development trainings in each calendar year.

Kindly therefore accord the member the required assistance.

Yours Faithfully,

Arnold C. Ndukuyu
